

THURSDAY, APRIL 20

WATER USE IT WISELY DAY

*Southwest Waterfront
9th & Water Streets, SW
10 am to 4 pm*

Events:

- Boat Rides for Youth along the Anacostia River
- Water Conservation Displays
- Live Music

Sponsored by

Contact: phone 202-673-6750

email dwade@mwcog.org

web greendcweek.net

THURSDAY, APRIL 20 WATER USE IT WISELY DAY

Water is a vital facet of life in Washington, D.C. and the Anacostia and Potomac Rivers and Rock Creek are important water arteries. This day will focus on water conservation and water protection in the District.

Lecture:

Janet Larson, Director of Research
Earth Policy Institute
"Plan B 2.0: Rescuing a Planet under Stress and a Civilization in Trouble"
Catholic University, Pryzbyla Center, 10:00 am

Film Screenings & Discussions:

Environmental Film Festival in the Nation's Capital & Smithsonian's National Museum of Natural History, "Water Issues," Baird Auditorium, Noon

The Anacostia: Restoring the People's River
George Washington University
Media & Public Affairs Building
21st & H Streets, NW, 6:30 pm

Partners: DC Energy Office, University of the District of Columbia, Department of Parks and Recreation, Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments, DC Water and Sewer Authority, Department of Health/Environmental Health Administration, Department of Public Works, Discovery Creek, District Department of the Environment, George Washington University, Living Classrooms, Environmental Film Festival in the Nation's Capital, Catholic University, Naval District Washington, Shaw EcoVillage